Wednesday, 20 – Friday, 22 September 2006

Part-timers, supply teachers and returners fulfil an increasingly important role in the education service. This course has proved to be very valuable as a springboard into new career opportunities and involvement in the NUT.

The course aims to:

- provide you with information and advice on the NUT's support for part-time teachers, supply teachers and returners;
- help you decide on your priorities and recognise your professional skills; and
- help you to think about how you want to develop, professionally, personally and in terms of involvement with your Union.

Who should attend:

Part-time teachers, supply teachers, returners or those contemplating a return to teaching.
